ENGEL

THE STORY

F. Engel has grown steadily since it was first established, and today enjoys a strong position with three divisions: ENGEL Workwear, Sunwill men's trousers as well as Deerhunter hunting apparel. What all three share is the emphasis that has been placed on strengthening design and development in order to continually improve fit and functionality.

The Engel family has played a key role in the company ever since 1927. Today, the business is run by the fourth generation.
